Elizabeth Bukusi, MBChB, MMed (ObGyn), MPH, PhD, is principal research officer for the Kenya Medical Research Institute (KEMRI) and program director of FACES (Family AIDS Care and Education Services)–Nyanza. FACES, an HIV/AIDS care and treatment program in Western Kenya and Nairobi, is a collaboration between KEMRI and UCSF, funded through the US President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief (PEPFAR) and private contributions from generous donors.

Craig Cohen, MD, MPH, is an associate professor in the Department of Obstetrics, Gynecology, and Reproductive Sciences at UCSF and director of FACES. He is also principal investigator for the Sexually Transmitted Infections Clinical Trials Group, a seven-year NIH contract to support clinical trials for STI diagnostics, treatment, and vaccines, as well as microbicides, domestically and internationally.
